Woman's Life Awards Scholarships to Four Members

PORT HURON, MICH.—Woman's Life, a Trusted Fraternal Life brand that helps women and their families achieve financial stability through life insurance and annuity products, is proud to announce the recipients of the Woman's Life Scholarships for the 2026–2027 academic year.

Chesney Carmack, a member of Chapter 081 in Ely, Minnesota, will study public health at Texas State University.

Nicolas Jamison, a member of Club 11 in Port Huron, Michigan, will attend the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign to study astrophysics.

Kegan McPharlin, a member of Chapter 757 in Port Huron, Michigan, will study physical therapy at Michigan State University.

Dane Smith, a member of Chapter 611 in Port Huron, Michigan, will attend Michigan State University to study actuarial science and computer engineering.

"Scholarships are one way Woman's Life helps our members invest in their futures," said Lisa Pilon, Woman's Life Member Engagement Representative. "We are honored to recognize these outstanding students and support them as they pursue their education, develop their talents and make a meaningful difference in the community."

Each year, Woman's Life awards four merit- and need-based scholarships for undergraduate study. Each scholarship provides $1,000 per year for up to four years.

Scholarship recipients must be a life insurance benefit member of Woman's Life. Learn more about this membership benefit at womanslife.org/member-benefits/scholarship-opportunity/.
